Consent for Equine Experience

Welcome to The Equine Healing Collaborative! We hope you will enjoy your time with us and our equine partners. There is no riding in our program and all work takes place on the ground. This document contains important information about our services and business policies. Although these documents are long and sometimes complex, it is very important that you understand them. When you sign this document, it will also represent an agreement between us. We can discuss any questions you have when you sign them or at any time in the future.

EQUINE Experience

Equine Experience is a relationship between individuals and equines that works in part because of clearly defined rights and responsibilities held by each person. As a participant, you have certain rights and responsibilities that are important for you to understand.

The Equine Experience comes with certain risks. Although every effort has been made to ensure that our equines are safe around individuals, they are large animals of prey and if they feel threatened or trapped will attempt to escape that threat (escape can include, pulling, running, kicking, jumping, or biting). It is imperative that you wear appropriate clothing (jeans and closed toed sturdy shoes) to every session. If at any time, you feel your safety is threatened by your equine partner, please let us know. Two basic areas to avoid are standing directly in front of or behind your equine partner. Our clinicians and horseman will remind you of these safety rules if needed.

The Equine Healing Collaborative relies on the generous allowance of space by the owners and operators of Vista Nadura, Flying Pig Ranch and Divine Equine Therapy. Vista Nadura, Flying Pig Ranch and Divine Equine Therapy also act as public boarding facilities and there are members of the public on the property at various times throughout the day. Guides will make every effort to guard your session by ensuring that your therapy session takes place away from the milieu of the barn, however, barn members have free access to all parts of the property. In the event that another barn member approaches your session, we will suspend the session temporarily and resume once we feel your confidentiality can be secured.

The Equine Experience has both benefits and risks. Risks may include experiencing uncomfortable feelings, however, equine experiences have been shown to have benefits for individuals who undertake it. Equine experiences often lead to a significant reduction in feelings of distress, increased satisfaction in interpersonal relationships, greater personal awareness and insight, increased skills for managing stress and resolutions to specific problems. But, there are no guarantees about what will happen.

You should evaluate this information and make your own assessment about whether you feel comfortable working with The Equine Healing Collaborative. If you have questions about our procedures, please discuss them whenever they arise.

SESSIONS

Sessions will ordinarily be 60-120 minutes in duration for one time. They are scheduled and if a participant is late to their appointment the session will end on time and no refund will be given.
